NARRATIVE:

Armen Minasyan has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21. His convictions include battery, burglary, vehicle hit and run with property damage, receiving stolen property, possession of narcotic controlled substances, petty theft with prior convictions, possession of drugs in prison, violation of parole and disorderly conduct. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 3 year term for burglary. Minasyan was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 27, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in August 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Minasyan qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of drugs in prison is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
